

□ Hisashi SANADA, PhD

➤ Academic Career

- MPE of the University of Tsukuba in 1981
- Ph.D., Waseda University in 2010
- Associated professor, Univ.of Education at Fukuoka, 1990-1996
- Professor, University of Tsukuba from 2008
- Provost of School of Health and Physical Education from 2012
- General director of Centre for Olympic Research and Education at the University of Tsukuba from 2010
- Counselor to CEO of TOKYO Organising Committee of Olympic and Paralympic Games from 2014
- Chairman of TIAS from 2014

➤ Research Theme

I have specialized in history and anthropology of the Greek Olympian Games in the 19th century and the philosophy of Prof. Jigoro Kano, the first IOC member from Japan.

Nowadays, I am formulating the Olympic and Paralympic education programme as a committee member for TOKYO 2020.