

□ Satoshi SHIMIZU, PhD

➤ Academic Career

- M.E of University of Tsukuba in 1987
- Ph.D of University of Tsukuba in 1991
- Professor of the University of Tsukuba from 2010

➤ Research Theme

I have been researching on sport sociology, especially cultural politics of baseball, football, Olympic Games and history of the body.

- Tokyo - Bidding for the Olympics and the Discrepancies of Nationalism, IJHS, Routledge, 31-6: 601-617, 2014.
- The Significance of Koshien Baseball in Postwar Okinawa: A Representation of "Okinawa", IJHS, 29-17: 2421-2434, Routledge, 2012.
- The Creation of Professional Sports Leagues in Japan: A Cultural History of Human Networks. IJHS, 27-3: 553-569, Routledge, 2010.
- Olympic Studies: Discrepant Experiences and Politics, 1-255, Serika-shobo, 2004.
- Japanese Soccer Fans: Following the Local and the National Team, J.Horne et al. (eds) Japan, Korea and the 2002 World Cup, Routledge, 133-146, 2002.
- Archaeology of Koshien Baseball: Narratives of Sport, Media and Body Culture, 1-290, Shinhyoron, 1998.