

□ Taku YAMAGUCHI, MSc

➤ Academic Career

- MSc in PS.M. of Doshisha University in 2004
- PhD candidate of University of Tsukuba (~2014)

➤ Research Theme

I have been researching and working as a practitioner, such as Advisor of Local Ministry, Consultant of UN, Expert of JICA, and Director of NGO in the field of “PES development” and “Sport for Development and Peace” since 1999.

Recently, I have been interested in the “cross-cultural interface” in the PE development process in developing countries, to provide sustainable development assistance.

- A genealogical study on PE and Sport in modern education era of Cambodia (1863~1953), Bull. Facul. Health & Sci. UT. 37 (1): 53-62, 2014
- A study of “Sport and Gender” of the field of Int'l development assistance, Journal of Sport and Gender Studies 11 : 92-100, 2013
- Education policy in Cambodia: fundamental proposals for diffusion of physical education, Japan J. of PEH. Sport Sci. 57: 297-313, 2012