

6. List of Courses

Foundation Subjects for Major (Compulsory)

Course Number	Course Name	Credits	Standard Academic Year	Course Offering Term	Weekday and Period	Classroom	Instructor	Course Overview
0ATQ001	Olympic Movement Studies	1.0	1	FallAB	Mon2	GSI302	Kei Ota, Yukinori Sawae, Taro Obayashi	In this class, we will learn the history and development of Olympic (and Paralympic) Movement and discuss the future. Especially, we focus on the definition of the Olympic Movement, the process of Olympic Movement in Japan, the Olympic Movement beyond Tokyo 2020, etc. The topics of the Paralympics are also treated.
0ATQ002	Olympic Movement and Sport Law	1.0	1	FallAB	Wed1	GSI302	Kenji Saito	This course deals with the Olympic Charter and Anti-Doping Rules as laws related to the Olympic Movement, and introduces interpretation method or function of these legal norms. Specifically, students will learn the composition and contents of the Olympic Charter, the definition of the Olympic Charter concerning the Olympic Movement, its legal significance, and the transition of the Olympic Movement in the previous Olympic Charter.
0ATQ003	International Sport Event Management	1.0	1	SprABC	Intensive	GSI302	Ebe Daigo	This course provides a framework for understanding the management and marketing strategies used in the sporting event industry. The major focus on Sports Event Management examines two themes, sport events as medium/catalyst and sport events as product. The first theme views sports as one of the vehicles to promote a product, service or organization. The second theme focuses on the application of general event management principles and theories to promote sports and sport related products.
0ATQ004	Anti-Doping	1.0	1	FallABC	Intensive	TBA	Koichi Watanabe	The development of anti-doping (AD) program in sports all over the world, AD program and Global sport, Sport system, the Code and roles and responsibilities of athletes are introduced. Also the importance of Integrity in sport, values-based education, fairness in sport will be discussed.
0ATQ005	Japanese Culture	1.0	1	FallABC	Tue5,6	TBA	Izumi Egami	In this course, students will learn about Japanese manner and hospitality through Japanese food, festival, kimono and calligraphy.

Foundation Subjects for Major (Compulsory)

Course Number	Course Name	Credits	Standard Academic Year	Course Offering Term	Weekday and Period	Classroom	Instructor	Course Overview
0ATQ006	Sport and Diversity	1.0	1	SprA	Thu3	GSI302	Yukinori Sawae, Satoshi Shimizu	Through this course, the students will learn about problems that we have been facing regarding sports and diversity and discuss about future inclusive society through 2 different topics. First topic is about sport and gender issues such as women's participation in sports, women's position and leadership in sports organizations, LGBT issues, etc. The second topic is about sport and disabilities. The students will learn about the Paralympic Games and other international competitive sports events as well as leaning about various disabilities and their characteristics through some examples.
0ATQ007	Olympic and Paralympic Education	1.0	1	SprAB	Wed2	GSI302	Yukinori Sawae, BENTON Caroline Fern, Taro Obayashi	In this class, we will learn the theory and practices of the Olympic and Paralympic education. Especially in Japan, the educational activities are promoted even in the Tokyo 1964. In addition, One-School One-Country programme was spreaded on Nagano 1998. Based on the historical background and experiences for Tokyo 2020, we will consider the future of the Olympic and Paralympic education.
0ATQ008	Taiku (Physical Education)	1.0	1	SprABC	Intensive	GSI302	Hirokazu Matsuo	The course outlines contemporary themes in sport pedagogy from both theoretical and practical perspectives. In the first half of the course, guest lectures from experts in various domains will teach students about issues and approaches to physical education within Japanese and international contexts. In the latter classes, students will apply selected PE theory to practical (group) teaching sessions in an activity of their choice.
0ATQ009	Cross-Cultural Communication	1.0	1	SprAB	Fri5	GSI302	Randeep Rakwal	In this course, students will learn the basics of cross-cultural communication in respect to the globalised university, and the future working environment they will face. Irrespective of your backgrounds, past affiliations and disciplines, the need will be to have good communication with people having diverse perspectives and personalities, and which is key for building relationships and success, and future careers.
0ATQ010	Research Project Management	2.0	1	FallABC	Fri1	GSI302	Randeep Rakwal	In this course, students will learn about management of their research projects, focusing on the planning, outline construction and details therein in line with the stated aims and objectives of the project.

Major Subjects (Common Subjects)

Course Number	Course Name	Credits	Standard Academic Year	Course Offering Term	Weekday and Period	Classroom	Instructor	Course Overview
0ATQ101	TIAS Internship A	4.0	1	FallC, Spr Vac	by request		Toshinobu Kawai, Randeep Rakwal, Taku Yamaguchi	Host organisations for the internship will be set to gain practical knowledge for the students about sports' events, tournaments or conferences. Those experiences might construct or connect with their carrier paths as well.
0ATQ102	TIAS Internship B	4.0	1	SprC, Sum Vac	by request		Toshinobu Kawai, Randeep Rakwal, Taku Yamaguchi	Host organisations for the internship will be set to gain practical knowledge for the students about sports' events, tournaments or conferences. Those experiences might construct or connect with their carrier paths as well.
0ATQ103	TIAS Research Project	4.0	2	SprABC	by request		Yukinori Sawae, Koyo Fukasawa, Kenji Saito, Takeshi Nishiyasu, Randeep Rakwal, Koichi Watanabe, Junko Ohishi, Toshinobu Kawai	Students will conduct their own research project based on one of the research majors as below, and will write a final report. 1)Olympic and Paralympic Education 2)Sport Management 3)Sport Science and Medicine 4)Teaching, Coaching and Japanese Culture

Major Subjects (Research Major)

Course Number	Course Name	Credits	Standard Academic Year	Course Offering Term	Weekday and Period	Classroom	Instructor	Course Overview
0ATQ201	Seminar in Olympic and Paralympic Education I	2.0	1	FallABC	by request		Yukinori Sawae, Koyo Fukasawa, Taro Obayashi	By the end of the seminar students will be able to articulate their research argument about Olympic and Paralympic Education through review study and practical research with written and orally presented project.
0ATQ202	Seminar in Olympic and Paralympic Education II	2.0	1	SprABC	by request		Yukinori Sawae, Koyo Fukasawa, Taro Obayashi	By the end of the seminar students will be able to articulate their research argument about Olympic and Paralympic Education through review study and practical research with written and orally presented project.
0ATQ203	Seminar in Sport Management I	2.0	1	FallABC	Wed5		Kenji Saito, Ebe Daigo	This course focuses on the sport management, business and administration. The course can be divided into two parts. The first part is individual activity. Students require to collect, introduce, and summarize scientific papers those are related to their research topic. The other part is a group activity. Students is expected to work in small group. They will discuss and decide their theme, set up research questions, collect data, and have a presentation at the final class.
0ATQ204	Seminar in Sport Management II	2.0	1	SprABC	Wed5		Kenji Saito, Ebe Daigo	This course focuses on the sport management, business and administration. The course can be divided into two parts. The first part is individual activity. Students require to collect, introduce, and summarize scientific papers those are related to their research topic. The other part is a group activity. Students is expected to work in small group. They will discuss and decide their theme, set up research questions, collect data, and have a presentation at the final class.
0ATQ205	Seminar in Sport Science and Medicine I	2.0	1	FallABC	by request		Takeshi Nishiyasu, Hideki Takagi, Koichi Watanabe, Randeep Rakwal	Literature review, small group discussion on experimental design and research methods necessary for writing a final report.
0ATQ206	Seminar in Sport Science and Medicine II	2.0	1	SprABC	by request		Takeshi Nishiyasu, Hideki Takagi, Koichi Watanabe, Randeep Rakwal	Literature review, small group discussion on experimental design and research methods necessary for writing a final report.
0ATQ207	Seminar in Teaching, Coaching and Japanese Culture I	2.0	1	FallABC	by request		Toshinobu Kawai, Yasuo Sengoku, Junko Ohishi, Hirokazu Matsuo	Student will choose an academic supervisor from one of the professors listed above. Through this course, students will be instructed by the academic supervisor on identifying issues and knowledge gaps, setting research questions and research design, collecting and processing data, and giving presentations.

Major Subjects (Research Major)

Course Number	Course Name	Credits	Standard Academic Year	Course Offering Term	Weekday and Period	Classroom	Instructor	Course Overview
0ATQ208	Seminar in Teaching, Coaching and Japanese Culture II	2.0	1	SprABC	by request		Toshinobu Kawai, Yasuo Sengoku, Junko Ohishi, Hirokazu Matsuo	Students will be instructed by the academic supervisor as chosen in Seminar I. In Seminar II, students will continue learning to identify issues and knowledge gaps, set research questions and research design, collect and process data, and give presentations.
0AS0204	Olympic and Paralympic History	1.0	1	FallAB	Tue1	GSI302	Yukinori Sawae, Taro Obayashi	In this class, we will learn the history of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games especially on the origin, the process of development and the challenges for future. Specifically, we focus on the history of the ancient Olympics (ancient Games in Greece), the revival of the Olympics in modern times, Olympic (and Paralympic) movement in Japan, the Stoke mandeville games and the Paralympics, etc.
0ATQ209	Olympism and Legacy	1.0	1	FallAB	Thu2	GSI302	Koyo Fukasawa	In this course, we will learn about the significance of Olympism and Olympic Legacy, consider the ideal way of legacy that fits the situation in the future countries and regions, and reflect Olympism by contemplating future Olympic Legacy. Will aim to develop insight into legacy through them. After confirming the essentials of Olympism, we will take the opportunity of the Olympic Legacy to be mentioned and the details of its introduction. Based on these, we will investigate the actual sports mega event, contemplate actions that reflect the legacy philosophy, and give presentations on them.
0ATQ210	Sport Organisation and Governance	1.0	1	FallABC	Intensive	GSI302	Shoichi Sugiyama	The objectives of this course are: i) to understand the governance structure of International Sport Federations (IFs) and National Sport Federations (NFs) and their business at the practical level as well as the roles and responsibilities of stakeholders involved in sports organizations; and ii) to discuss the system for promoting “Olympic Movement” (including anti-doping and dispute resolution) and the global model of governance in the field of sports, focusing on the interaction among stakeholders proposed by the International Olympic Committee. This course is organized by the expert practitioners working at IF (s) or NF(s).

Major Subjects (Research Major)

Course Number	Course Name	Credits	Standard Academic Year	Course Offering Term	Weekday and Period	Classroom	Instructor	Course Overview
0ATQ211	International Sport Marketing	1.0	1	FallABC	Intensive	GSI302	Ebe Daigo	This course will be an 10-classes course that will have a broad overview of sports marketing strategies including sponsorship and consumer behaviour. Ideas such as promotion, public relations, advertising, media coverage and sponsorship will be explored in this course. The student will have presentations to learn each contents of sports marketing. Furthermore, through discussion topics (we will call this 'class activity') the student will focus on reinforcing topics presented in the class as well as current topics in sports.
0ATQ212	Sport Technology and Biomechanics	1.0	1	SprAB	Thu5	GSI302	Hideki Takagi	Students will learn the rationale of biomechanics and hydrodynamics behind the development of sports gears or high competitive performance, and discuss the methods and problems of the latest athlete's training. Students will be able to address the technological challenges in modern sports.
0ATQ213	Sport Medicine	1.0	1	SprAB	Mon3,4	GSI302	Koichi Watanabe	This course introduce sports medicine in JAPAN and the world, medical issue in event management. Lectures such as sports injury and trauma updates, sudden death and medical screening by aging, basis for athletic prevention and rehabilitation including oriental medicine, conditioning and gender issue will be discussed. Also it include practices of CPR, experience of surgery in an operating room, massage, taping, and another interventions.
0ATQ214	Exercise Physiology and Human Performance	1.0	1	SprAB	Mon6	GSI302	Seiji Ono, Takeshi Nishiyasu	Introduction of exercise physiology and latest findings related to human performance.
0ATQ215	Elite Sport Coaching	1.0	1	SprABC	by request	TBA	Yasuo Sengoku	In this course, we will learn and practice the theory and methodology about coaching and training for elite athlete.
0ATQ216	Budo	1.0	1	SprB	Intensive	TBA	Junko Ohishi	In this course, students will have a short study tour to the city of Kashima in Ibaraki prefecture on the second Saturday/Sunday in June. They will observe and learn about the modern/traditional styles of budo(Japanese martial arts).